1 (Via teleconference, case called)

2 THE COURT: Good morning, this is Judge Koeltl.

3 Who is on the line for plaintiff?

4 MR. WANG: Good morning, your Honor, Benjamin Wang
5 from Russ, August & Kabat and Charlie Macedo from Amster,
6 Rothstein & Ebenstein.

7 THE COURT: All right. And who is on the phone for 8 the defendant?

9 MR. WANG: Good morning, your Honor, Heidi Keefe from 10 Cooley for defendant. With me is Bill Morton, and the client,
11 Nikki Vo.

12 THE COURT: Okay, the reason for the call is I want to 13 set up the time for argument on the pending motion.

14 First, additional points. Since I last talked to you,
15 my law clerks have changed and I currently have a law clerk who 16 worked at Cravath for somewhat less than two years, and in the 17 course of that worked on a case in which the client that he was 18 working on was against the plaintiff's lawyer and with the 19 expert for the defense. So that clerk doesn't work on this 20 case.

21 I also believe I brought to your attention at an 22 earlier point in the case that I have a niece that works at 23 Latham, is a partner at Latham, and has represented and I think
24 still is representing Facebook in other cases. She doesn't 25 share in any income from any cases that I have.

LCKTMIRC

1 I think that's it. Nothing about anything about any
2 of these situations affects anything that I do in the case, but
3 I always bring these issues to the attention of the parties.

4 Next, the reason for the call is I wanted to set up
5 argument on the motions. I intend to do the argument on 6 January 27 at 10:00 a.m. I'm sorry for the inconvenience that
7 that causes to people on the West Coast, but I imagine you deal
8 with these issues a lot. I had thought about having the 9 argument in person, I enjoyed having the last argument in 10 person, but I'm concerned about all of your travel.

11 Our court is open. I have court proceedings in court
12 in criminal cases and I have done several trials, jury trials,
13 in court, including in my courtroom. So I know all of that is 14 possible, but I'm concerned about, frankly, your welfare. So
15 that left me with two possibilities. One is to do the motion
16 by telephone conference. That's the way in which I have been 17 doing all of my civil motions. But I remember that there were 18 demonstrative exhibits last time, and I would be prepared to do
19 the conference by Zoom. I'm sure that our technical people can 20 set up a Zoom conference. I would probably do it from my 21 chambers because the technology in my chambers is better than 22 the technology in my courtroom. So I will have to get
23 appropriate background for my office computer and wear my robe
24 in my chambers unless I decide to follow Judge Weinstein's
25 example and do it more informally.

LCKTMIRC

1 But I want to discuss that with the parties to see if
2 you're comfortable doing it by Zoom. Plaintiff?

3 MR. WANG: Thank you, your Honor. So we would be
4 comfortable doing it by Zoom over the teleconference option.
5 Our preference would be to do it in person. We do understand
6 all the difficulties and risks and concerns with that, but we
7 would be open to that if all parties and the Court were 8 amenable to that.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 MR. WANG: If I may, your Honor, the January 27 date,
11 if there is any flexibility with potentially pushing the 12 hearing off to February, that would certainly make it better
13 for us because we have conflicts and we have another hearing
14 scheduled for that same day, but if that's all that is 15 available, then, of course, we will make any necessary
16 adjustments.

17 THE COURT: That's very kind of you. The motions are 18 very extensive. I'm looking at two boxes in my chambers, and 19 the parties tweaked me about getting to the motions, and so
20 that's why I said I wanted to make sure that I got to them and 21 set it as early as I could on my calendar, which is why the 22 January 27 date. And things become more crowded for me in 23 terms of trial after that, which is why I set it for that date.
24 So I really would like to keep that.

25 So if it's more convenient for you to do it by Zoom

LCKTMIRC

1 under those circumstances and save the travel time, again, I
2 would be prepared to do it by Zoom, but if the defendants are 3 also amenable to doing it in person, I do lots of things in 4 court in person. You would all be masked, but we do at this 5 point allow people to come on in.

6 MS. KEEFE: Your Honor, this Heidi Keefe for 7 defendant. We also would really like to be able to see you in 8 person, and we are absolutely amenable to doing it in person.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Sold. I'm happy to see you all.

10 MS. KEEFE: Thank you, your Honor.

11 MR. MACEDO: Your Honor, this is Charlie Macedo.
12 Again, if January 27 is the only day, that's fine, but I do
13 have an argument that day.

14 THE COURT: Hold on.

15 (Pause)

16 THE COURT: I know it's not the most convenient time,
17 January 28 at 2 o'clock.

18 MS. KEEFE: That's fine with the defendants, your 19 Honor.

20 MR. MACEDO: And I have no conflict with that.

21 MR. WANG: Your Honor, let me check the calendar.

22 Your Honor, I think that will work for us. We'll
23 accept that date. Thank you very much.

24 THE COURT: Great.

25 MR. MACEDO: Thank you, your Honor.

LCKTMIRC

1 THE COURT: Sure. I try to be accommodating to the 2 extent that I can. Fine, January 28, at 2:00 p.m. in person.

3 Okay. Anything else?

4 MR. MACEDO: Are there any pre-procedures that you
5 want to do other than Covid-related-wise?

6 THE COURT: No. Check our court protocols with
7 respect to Covid. I hope that everyone will be vaccinated.
8 You can check. I imagine they're on our website what our Covid
9 protocols are, but everyone will still have to be masked. And 10 I think the only difference between the vaccination status is 11 the degree to which you have to be socially distant in the well
12 of the court. My courtroom has been smoke tested to assure 13 that in a jury trial the person speaking from the podium and 14 the witness don't have to be masked, but the judge still has to 15 be masked if there's a witness in the box.

16 It may be -- and I'm not sure of this -- that the 17 lawyers speaking from the podium and me don't have to be masked
18 in my courtroom, but frankly, I'm not sure about that. I still 19 wear a mask, so do the lawyers in criminal cases, but you can
20 check our website. And it's possible our Covid protocols may 21 change in the new year depending on what the statistics are and 22 what our medical experts tell us.

23 MR. MACEDO: Thank you, your Honor, and we appreciate
24 your accommodations regarding this.

25 MS. KEEFE: Nothing further from defendants except to

LCKTMIRC

1 wish you a happy holiday season.

2 MR. MACEDO: And from plaintiffs.

3 THE COURT: Happy holidays to all of you. Please be
4 well, stay safe.

5 MS. KEEFE: Thank you, your Honor, we'll see you in 6 January, hopefully.

7 MR. MACEDO: Thank you, your Honor.

8 MR. WANG: Thank you, your Honor.
